The following Terms and Conditions (“Terms”) describe your rights and obligations with respect to the Premises and Services under the Agreement between You and Limelight, LLC, as executed contemporaneously herewith. The terms and provisions of that Agreement are incorporated as though fully written below.

BY EXECUTING THIS DOCUMENT, ACCESSING THE PREMISES, AND/OR USING ANY SERVICES, YOU AGREE TO ABIDE BY AND BE BOUND BY THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

Additional Services may be made available to you at the Premises or by Limelight in Limelight’s sole discretion. For more information about additional Services, please submit a request at info@limelightwork.com. Additional Terms may apply to any such additional Services, and to the extent you use any such additional Services, you are agreeing to abide by and be bound by any such additional Terms.

Your Membership is exclusive and personal, and does not entitle you to extend access to the Services or Premises to any third parties. The availability and scope of the Services are subject to change from time to time in Limelight’s sole discretion. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, you acknowledge that the Premises, and the Services Limelight may offer at the Premises, are also subject to change from time to time. From time to time, Limelight may also make modifications, deletions or additions to these Terms and will provide you with notice via email and via a message board post on the Member Portal of any such changes to these Terms or to Services that apply to you. Unless otherwise set forth in the Agreement or these Terms, such modifications shall be effective immediately upon notice of the same by Limelight.

All recurring fees shall be charged to your payment method on the first (1st) day of each month. Overage fees and any other nonrecurring fees shall be charged to your payment method within thirty (30) days following your accruing of such fees.

B. Web Beacons. Web beacons and similar technologies are small bits of code, which are embedded in web pages, ads, and e-mail, that communicate with third parties. We may use web beacons, for example, to count the number of users who have visited a particular web page, to deliver or communicate with cookies, and to understand usage patterns. We also may include web beacons in e-mails to understand whether messages have been opened, acted on, or forwarded.

C. Other Technologies. There are other local storage and Internet technologies, such as Local Shared Objects (also referred to as “Flash cookies”) and HTML5 local storage, that operate similarly to the cookies discussed above in that they are stored on your device and can be used to store certain information about your activities and preferences across different services and sessions. Please note that these technologies are distinct from cookies, and you may not be able to control them using standard browser tools and settings. For information about disabling or deleting information contained in Flash cookies, please click here.

- D. How We Use These Technologies. We use these technologies for the following purposes:
- i. Administering and improving our Services, including helping us measure and research the effectiveness of our content, features, advertisements, and other communications. For example, we measure which pages and features website visitors are accessing and how much time they are spending on our webpages. We may include web beacons in e-mails, for example, to understand whether messages have been opened, acted on, or forwarded.
 - ii. Storing your sign-in credentials and preferences so that you don’t have to enter those credentials and preferences every time you log on to a Service.
 - iii. Helping us and third parties provide you with relevant content and advertising by collecting information about your use of our Services and other websites.

By continuing to use the Services, you consent to our use of cookies, web beacons, and other Internet technologies as described above.
